CONDITIONS OF SALE.

FIRST.—The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute, shall be immediately put up again and resold, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.

SECOND.—No person to advance less than 1s. ; above five pounds, 5s. ; and so on in proportion.

THIRD.—In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.

FOURTH.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5s. in the pound, or more, in part of payment, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required ; in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.

FIFTH.—The lots to be taken away and paid for, whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description, at the buyer's expense and risk, within Two days from the sale ; GLENDINING & CO., Ltd., not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any default or defect in, any lot, and making no warranty whatever.

SIXTH.—To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale, and the remainder of the purchase-money must absolutely be paid on the delivery.

SEVENTH.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited ; all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be resold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.

EIGHTH.—If any owner has placed a reserve on any lot, the auctioneers reserve to themselves the right to publish the fact and price at which it is reserved.

THE UNDERWRITERS OF LONDON

TO

Mrs. Margaret Pemberton,

In testimony of the respect for the memory of her late son, Captain George Pemberton, Commander of the ship Wilding of Liverpool, who died on the 20th day of November, 1795, of the wounds he received in a most gallant action with a French Privateer of superior force, when bound on a voyage to Jamaica, in which action Captn. Pemberton did honor to the character of a British Sailor by destroying the enemy's ship and preserving his own.

Hall-marked 1796, weight 115 ozs.
